

Kris Santoso

Kris Santoso is a Tennis Coach with the unique ability to improve the play of adults and children who want to enjoy the game at a recreational level or be nationally and internationally ranked. He can adjust his teaching style to the perfection of fundamentals for beginners to working within the current style of a veteran to tweak his or her game. When an injury forced his retirement from the ATP circuit he turned his passion for the game into a successful coaching career that is done with his encouraging and optimistic approach to learning and life. Additional credentials include:

- USTA Training
- Current Pro - Delta Town & Country Tennis Club since 2005
- Current Pro - Tsawwassen Tennis Club
- Tennis BC Provincial Coach for the U14, U16 and U18 groups

Kris' successes as a player are:

- Participated in the Junior French Open, US Open, and Wimbledon tournaments
- Full tennis scholarship to the University of California at Berkeley
- Held an ATP ranking and victorious over a top 200 player

To arrange for you private, semi-private, or group lesson please contact Kris at:

604-728-9622

krissantoso@hotmail.com